

Grace Dispenser

Description

Make every effort to live in peace with all men and to be holy; without holiness no one will see the Lord. (Hebrews 12:14)

I long to be a dispenser of grace. I want to live in such a way that I dispense grace to all those I come in contact with. I want to show mercy to those who are hurting. I want to love the unlovable. Give kindness to those who aren't so kind. I want to have a teachable spirit. I want to show patience to those who can be difficult to love at times. I want to be a Grace Dispenser.

Lord, please remind me that you have dispensed Your grace on my life in tremendous portion. I pray that I will take what has so freely been given to me and give it to others. I pray that I will not be affected by the moods of others, the test of times, the struggles, the battles, the moments of anxiety in life, and the storms that rage.

Lord, may I be steadfast in Your love and stand firm on Your Truth. May I become a dispenser of grace! I pray that I will not be swayed by this world's opinions, by it's desires, and it's love to be recognized. May I live my life to advance Your purpose and seek You every day that I live. Please don't let me walk out even a single day without You in the forefront of my mind. May my heart fully go after You and may my mind seek to bring You praise! All this and more I pray.

Great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; his greatness no one can fathom.(Psalm 145:3)

You are great my Lord and King! You are more than worthy of all my praise. I truly cannot fathom how great You are and how magnificent Your faithfulness has been in my life. I live to give You glory, to bring You honor, to sing Your praises, and to magnify Your greatness! May I be a dispenser of Your goodness today!

You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being. (Revelation 4:11)

Lord, I pray that You will receive all the glory, honor, and power due Your name! May I live to advance You and Your purpose! As I live to advance You, may Your grace freely flow through my life. May I reach out in love to others and remember to show them mercy. Please help me be a dispenser of mercy today!

And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work. (2 Corinthians 9:8)

Lord, please make Your grace abound in me. I pray that in all things, I will abound in every good work You have for me. May I freely dispense your grace today!

You then, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. (2 Timothy 2:1)

Lord, I pray that my strength will come through Your grace alone. I pray that my life will speak of all that I've been given. May people see You in me when I speak, when I walk, and when I do anything. Oh God, I pray with all my heart that I will live to make You known. May I dispense grace today to everyone I come in contact with!

In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's GRACE that he lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding. (Ephesians 1:7-8)

May I never forget the sacrifice You paid on the cross that I might experience grace. Lord, thank You for lavishing on me this rich reward of redemption. Thank You for saving me through Jesus one time sacrifice on the cross. I pray that I will die to myself daily, so that I might dispense the grace that You so freely lavished on me through one act of mercy! I love You Lord! May I dispense Your grace freely today!

To learn more about the promise of God's grace and several other promises in His Word for us as believers, you can buy my book Clinging to God's Promises.

“God's children who joyously know and claim who they are and whose they are, will be most likely to manifest the family likeness, just because they know they are His children.” (Alice Chapin)

Longing to be a Grace Dispenser,

Category

1. Identity in Christ

Tags

1. Grace
2. Prayer

Date Created

March 3, 2014

Author

thepricelessjourney

default watermark