

Lost in Your Love

Description

And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. (Ephesians 3:17-19)

I'm so blessed by the depth of God's love. I know that I have a bad attitude some days, I'm selfish other days, I tend to want my way sometimes, I think things that I shouldn't, and the list goes on. But God continues to pour out His love in my life. He continues to shape me and mold me into all that He desires me to be.

He doesn't say, "He'll love me when I'm good enough." He doesn't say, "He'll love me when I stop falling." He doesn't say, "He'll love me when I stop being selfish." He doesn't put a price tag on His love. He doesn't make me work for it. He simply loves me. What an astounding thought! God's love has no measure! His love is vast and He truly lavishes it upon us. Wow, what a beautiful picture! I can't help but smile thinking about it.

"How great is the love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God!"
(1 John 3:1)

May you take time to celebrate the gift of God's love today!

Dear Father God, Your love still amazes me! Your love has always lifted me up and helped me soar through every detail of life. I'm so grateful that Your Son made it possible for me to experience what True Love is and how to express that daily. I'm forever grateful!
