

Priceless Warrior

Description

In conclusion, be strong in the Lord [be empowered through your union with Him]; draw your strength from Him [that strength which His boundless might provides]. Put on God's whole armor [the armor of a heavy-armed soldier which God supplies], that you may be able successfully to stand up against [all] the strategies and the deceits of the devil. (Ephesians 6:10-11 – AMPC)

I'm not sure if you have noticed but we are in a battle. A battle that wages every day. The good news is we know the One who has already overcome every battle we will ever face. He is victorious and in Him we can claim victory as well! For some, the sidelines have been ok. They like watching others engage in the fight but aren't so interested themselves.

It's clear in God's Word that the battle is intense. We are in it daily whether we like it or not. So why not get dressed for battle. Why not, get ready to fight!

I want to fight for every woman who has ever been marginalized by our society, told that she wasn't good enough or treated like a commodity.

I want to take a stance in every dark place of our society and say, "no more Satan." We are taking back the territory that you have stolen. We are fighting back for the one who cannot fight for themselves.

We will go to every dark corner, turn over every rock, and pull out the one who has yet to know her worth in Christ.

We know that women all over our nation and world are struggling with the thought of not being significant and worthy. We here at The Priceless Journey want to stand up and fight against that message. We want to reclaim the space that the enemy has occupied. So here we are, gloves on and ready to do battle.

We will do it one step at a time, declaring that every woman is truly priceless. She is valuable. She is worthy. She is loved. God made her on purpose for His purpose. She can take a stand and be who God has made her to be. She is a trophy of God's grace!

No looking back. No wondering "why me?" No thinking, "Isn't someone else better suited for this battle?" No more. I will stand, boxing gloves on, in fighting position, and heart ready to go as God leads.

Let's stand together in a fight worth fighting for.

Will you join us in battle? Let us fight for the woman in the brothel who has been lured into a life that doesn't pay. Let us fight for the stripper on the pole who thinks that's all she's worth. Let us fight for the prostitute on the streets who has succumb to the thoughts waging in her mind, thinking this is all she is good for. Let us fight for the one who is being trafficked this very minute.

Let's extend hope and grace to the ones we are fighting for.

We cannot fight alone. Join our battle by extending hope and grace to one person through the purchase of our book, You Are Priceless. You can make a difference today.
