

Biola University Speaking Engagement

Our President and co-founder Sarah Malanowski has been invited to be a part of a round table discussion at Biola University. Recently, the book You Are Priceless has become a recommended resource for a human trafficking class online. Sarah will be sharing how God has been using this book to bring freedom to women in prisons, clubs, trafficked survivors, recovery groups, and more. It is a great honor to have her represent our ministry at this beautiful event to bring awareness to the students and help them understand how they too can be part of the solution.

Biola University students are passionate about the fight against human trafficking and anxious to do whatever it takes to win the battle against it. Thank you Sarah for representing our ministry at this event!
