

Only a Moment

Description

For only a moment...

They would try to stay at the inn

Soon they would find no room for Him

The manger would be the place of birth

The beginning of peace on earth

For only a moment...

A star stood still in the sky

While the wise men's journey came nigh

They went to worship the newborn King

For this the angels did sing

For only a moment...

The baby grew to a young boy

His Father's business to deploy

Some would call Him just a carpenter's Son

Others would know Him as the Holy One

For only a moment...

He set out to change history
He would become the eternal key
Miracles, healings, and stories are told
Every mystery of the Savior to unfold

For only a moment...

His feet graced the earth
He showed the measure of all life's worth
He took on every single pain
So I can live a life that's not in vain

In only a moment...

He took the steps to Calvary
He was nailed to that bitter tree
He said, "It is finished."
For you and for me

In only a moment...

The earth gave a violent shake
Out from the grave, Jesus made His break
All those who proclaim He is Lord
One day find Heaven their great reward!

In only a moment...

An epic event took place
Life was changed by God's grace

Not by works, so I may not boast

The gift of God my Heavenly Host

In only a moment...

The Christmas season will pass

Will you remember the moments that last?

Is your life more than a moment to bring?

Will this be a year for your King?
