

Old Habits Die Hard

Description

Do everything without complaining or arguing, so that you may become blameless and pure, children of God... (Philippians 2:14-15)

I love it when Scripture just pricks your heart. Just a little nudge in the right direction! Way too often it becomes easy to complain about how busy we are, things that we don't have, problems that we are facing, family issues, financial strains, and so much more! You name it and we find a way to complain about it.

It's time to adjust our line of thinking. It's time to look at what we have and all that God is doing. Let's be people who declare God's goodness! Let us learn how to daily walk without complaining. The world might even take notice, if enough of us give up that old habit of complaining!

May we wake up each morning with gratefulness in our hearts for all that God will do throughout the day. May we go to sleep at night dreaming dreams of thankfulness!

Read more of Philippians 2

Dear Father God, Please search my heart! Help me to see where that old habit of complaining has snuck up on me! May I choose daily to rejoice in Your goodness and put away my complaining nature. May I have a heart of gratitude daily, as I walk with You!

Giving up my old habits of complaining,

Category

1. Identity in Christ

Tags

1. Attitude
2. Devotional

3. Fire
4. God
5. Jesus
6. Philippians
7. Tongue

Date Created

November 2, 2011

Author

thepricelessjourney

default watermark