

Embracing Forgiveness

Description

Easter is four to five weeks long.
This week leading up to Easter I would like to share some devotionals with you from my new book Praying through the Gospels. I have included some links at the end of the devotion, if you would like to order the book. Praying through the Gospels is pretty simple. It's just a small reflection in prayer on different aspects from the Gospels and what Jesus did for us. Hope you enjoy this week of devotionals!

Forgiveness Matters

Two other men, both criminals, were also led out with him to be executed. When they came to the place called the Skull, there they crucified him, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left. Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.”

Luke 23:32–34

Dear Father God, I am humbled by Jesus' first words from the cross. He has been beaten beyond recognition, flogged numerous times, crowned with a crown of thorns, and has been receiving nonstop insults from those who were watching. He barely had any life left in him. Yet his very first words from the cross were, “Father, forgive them.”

Lord, I'm so sorry for the times that I have held unforgiveness in my heart toward others. Please forgive me for being insensitive and unkind. Please forgive me for my unforgiving heart. I pray that you will give me the ability to forgive quickly just as I see Christ has done from the cross.

Lord, I also see that Jesus never breathed a murmur or sigh of complaint while he faced his execution. He never waved a flag of surrender. He never once threw in the towel. He climbed Calvary's Hill for me. My sins nailed him to that cross. Lord, may I live every day of my life thankful for the sacrifice that has been made on my behalf. May my life declare the praises of my Redeemer, and may I daily look for opportunities to raise his banner high!

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!
In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade—kept in heaven for you.
1 Peter 1:3–4

Praying through the Gospels Cover

Image not found or type unknown

default watermark

To enjoy more devotionals like this one you can order my book Praying through the Gospels. You can order it by clicking on any of the links below... (If you are looking to make a bulk purchase for your church, ministry, school, or Bible study please contact me personally and I will be happy to give you a discount on the books. My email address is godisalwaysfaithful@gmail.com)

Amazon

Barnes and Noble

Books A Million

Tate Publishing Bookstore

Category

1. Following Jesus

Tags

1. Cross
2. Easter

- 3. Forgiveness
- 4. Jesus Christ

Date Created

April 2, 2015

Author

thepricelessjourney

default watermark