

The Story of Everything

Description

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. (John 3:16-17)

This story is about you and it's about me. It's the story of redemption! The story of God's mercy! His unfailing love is yours and it's mine all because my Savior Jesus Christ died on a cross for my sins. The story of everything is my story. I pray that I will live to share this story with those around me on a daily basis. May I live to make God known. May the light of His Son Jesus shine brightly through me as I walk out each of my days. To God be the glory for the great things He has done and continues to do!

Dear Father God, I pray that I can honor You with my life today. I pray that I will have the strength to face whatever may come in my day. May I have the wisdom and the words to share the Gospel with someone today. And may I have my eyes set on eternity. Today is Yours, Lord! Please use me as You may!
